Let us hoist the National Flag and share our Tiranga selfies to collectively express our love and respect for the Tiranga!

What's New in 2025?

This year, Har Ghar Tiranga starts from 2nd August and unfolds in three powerful phases, engaging citizens through awareness creation, mass outreach and participatory activities celebrating the spirit of the National Flag that binds us all together.

This year's theme includes a strong focus on voluntary actions, civic pride, cleanliness drives and gratitude to our armed forces and police personnel.

The campaign features a range of inspiring events and activities including Tiranga inspired art, concerts, exhibitions, rangolis, yatras and rallies, sending rakhis and letters to police personnel and soldiers, quizzes, patriotic film screenings and more.

Become a Part of Har Ghar Tiranga Movement

Participation is simple, meaningful, and open to everyone.

1. Become a Volunteer

Register on the official website (harghartiranga.com) as a volunteer and take the message and spirit of the tricolour to your family, friends and local community. Share stories of bravehearts who died holding the Tiranga, interesting trivia and facts about our National Flag with people around you and help others hoist the flag correctly as per the Flag Code and join the digital movement by clicking and sharing Tiranga selfies. Volunteers will receive a volunteer badge, digital certificate, and top performers will be felicitated.

2. Hoist the National Flag

Buy and display the National Flag at your home, shop, factory, office and at other places connected to you. Read about the Flag Code of India that governs the display of the Tricolor, encourage and assist others to hoist the National Flag correctly.

3. Click and Upload Selfie with Tiranga

Click and upload your selfie with the National Flag on the website 'harghartiranga.com'. Facilitate others to become part of the digital movement and join the Selfie With Tiranga campaign. Share your moments online using #HarGharTiranga and #HarGharTiranga2025.

The Tiranga is our collective embodiment of patriotism. Let us all come together and celebrate Har Ghar Tiranga. Every Tiranga counts and every hand that raises it strengthens the idea of India.
